The Marlin complex in west City Heights was added to Sunrise Management's portfolio

Sunrise Management adds eight multifamily properties in San Diego

Expanding its hometown presence, San Diego-based Sunrise Management, which has specialized in managing multifamily properties since 1978, has added eight San Diego multifamily communities totaling 155 units to its portfolio.

According to Sunrise CEO and president Joe Greenblatt, his company will assume the leasing and day-to-day operations of the properties and assist with approximately $2.6 million in capital improvements to the communities including upgrades to interiors, common areas, landscaping and more.

Primarily located in urban San Diego, the communities – all owned by San Diego-based Pathfinder Partners as part of its Pathfinder Tradewinds platform – include:

- The Marlin, eight units in west City Heights
- Las Palmas, 36 units in Hillcrest
- The Dorado, 25 units in west City Heights
- The Wahoo, 13 units in west City Heights
- The Amberjack, 18 units in Normal Heights
- The Bluefin, nine units in North Park
- Driftwood, 24 units in Pacific Beach
- Canary Palms, 22 units in Poway

With these latest additions Sunrise now oversees more than 6,000 units throughout Southern California.
